But I say it s not fair! cried a red-headed lad, drawing himself up to his full height. You re not playing fair with us! Ach, it is not so! protested the one to whom the boy spoke. We find you an enemy in our city, and you must take the consequences! Just because you wear an officer s uniform, retorted the boy, beginning to lose his temper and gazing fearlessly into the pale blue eyes of the other, is no sign you know more than we do. You may think that helmet and those stripes on your arm give you more brains than the common run of people, but it isn t so! I say I protest!.
