While attending college, Jordyn Cardell s professor documents information which explains why her dad will not acknowledge her infant son. Determined to seek her Father s face, Jordyn works two part-time jobs while avoiding new friends. Even though she thinks herself plain and unattractive, she and her son have captured the attention of Al Michael. An ATV trip to the mountain ends with a terrible accident. Jordyn s dad and brother seek their rescue. Other surprising incidents of the day and the trauma of the wreck This gives Guy Cardell an opportunity to accept his grandson and to forgive his daughter. Al and Jordyn grow close as their grandparents entertain and advise them. Life is full of hurdles as Al and Jo clash. He almost loses sight of the gift that our Heavenly Father has planned for him. About the Author Ramona Hollenbeck lives in north Idaho with her husband. Gerald s son photographed the leaves and Jerry painted the cover picture.
