Excerpt: .and by their relative bearing promote enjoyment. We observe the charming landscape in which the variegated hues of the waving foliage vie with the blooming tints of the flowers, which together arouse the sensitive fancy; and, as the eye wanders from the vale with its emerald green to the mountains clad with varying colors, all the intervening scene transports and charms. Again, as we view the rising sun, as his mild radiance lights up hill and dale with enlivening beams, as we follow his apparent course to midday and his decline, when in the western horizon he sinks behind his golden canopy, to be succeeded by the silvery moon, which, moving in silent grandeur, chases away the lowering gloom of darkness; each of these phases of the day and night add suggestions of wonder and delight; while, through the senses into the mind, come...
