Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Club Stories, Washington State Federation of Women s Clubs Twenty-two short stories were written by Washington club women in a contest conducted by our state literature committee. At the federation convention held in Spokane last June, the decision of the judges was announced, the two stories ranking highest were read and the enterprise was supposed to be happily ended. Some one said: Publish them or at least a dozen of them. The idea grew. There are now fifteen thousand club women in the state. We are all more or less interested in each other s work and would want to read the stories. And so primarily they are printed for our own club family and any profit from the publication goes to the state endowment fund. There is another reason. Under the conditions of the contest, the plot of each story was to be laid in the Evergreen State. The result is they are full of local color and have a value aside from their literary worth. Gentle reader or competent critic, whichever you may...
