CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 394 pages. Dimensions: 10.0in. x 7.0in. x 0.9in. Pair 1, Book 2: Trails Through the Volcano Time: Modern, 1 month later POV characters: Amber, Alex, Livia, Corbo Communication has been cut off. No electricity. No phone service. Fuel is reserved for military missions. Most people evacuated to the north. Amber and Alex continue to survey the damage, and make sure those who remained behind are safe. People died without air conditioning to cool their homes. Or medicines they depended on to control life threatening illnesses. Two children who live with their grandmother are rescued from starvation. Another infant born to a woman who dies in childbirth. A death that is no longer preventable. Desperate men roam the streets of the towns where most have evacuated. Communities melt as the walls between human population groups rise again. Men, women, and cultures clash as if they had never learned to live together in peace. Livia and Corbo have a mission of their own in Arizona. Corbo is in a race to find his birth father, whom he has never met. His fate unknown. Without electricity, or fuel, they have to...
