Excerpt from Report of the Joint Board Consisting of the Metropolitan Park Commission and the State Board of Health Upon the Improvement of Charles River: From the Waltham Line to the Charles River Bridge; April, 1894 The two boards named in the act met for organization August 10, 1893. H. P. Walcott was elected chairman of the joint board and H. S. Carruth, secretary. At a later date F. P. Stearns, C. E., was appointed engineer to the board, and Messrs. Olmsted, Olmsted and Eliot were asked to consider the subject of the improvement of the river, to submit a report thereon and to prepare a plan of the improvements recommended. Mr. Eliot had been a member of the Charles River Improvement Commission appointed under authority of chapter 390 of the Acts of 1891, had acquired complete familiarity with the actual condition of the river, and had made, in a public document, valuable suggestions for its improvement. Dr. Robert W. Greenleaf of Boston was asked to make a sanitary survey of the district designated in the act. The members of the board...
