Observing this, Peter immediately proposes, in the words now read, the admission of these new converts to a regular Handling in the christian church, by the ordinance instituted for that purpose. As they had already been baptized by the Holy Ghost, the water baptism, which they Were now to receive, was intended as an outward seal or token of what they had inwardly experienced. The one was the immediate gift of God, producing a real change in the heart, purging it from fin and dead works, and bringing it to be answer of a good conscience toward God; the other was...
