Excerpt from Let Us Not Do Evil That Good May Come: A Letter Addressed to the Directors and Supporters of Bible and Missionary Societies All this your agents and advocates have a better Opportunity of knowing than almost any class of the community. And would it not be natural to expect, that having felt their hearts stirred with Christian charity on behalf of the poor benighted Chinese, they would be disposed - as Las Casas did, as David Brain erd did, as Dr. Philip did, as Knibb and Burchell did when that most truculent of all earthly things, the might of civilization without its mercy, is brought to bear upon them, to succour and befriend in a temporal sense those who are the objects of their spiritual compassion, and who - as against our countrymen in the East, restrained by no public Opinion, insolent from a sense of the terrible power at their back, abetted by powerful commercial interests and an utterly unscrupulous press at home may be justly described as those that have no helpers, unless you help them? And yet so...
