Developing Successful Health Care Education Simulation Centers: The Consortium Model

By Jim Battin BS

Springer Publishing Company. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.8in. x 0.4in. Pam Jefferies and Jim Battin provide a very thoughtful, step by step approach to create a collaborative health care simulation consortium. It is inspiring to witness many stakeholders come together in Southeast Indiana to effectively educate and train people entering the healthcare profession (and current nurses, doctors, and allied health professionals)! This book isn't just about health care and simulation it offers a terrific road-map for any community, region, or industry focused on developing human potential as the means to economic prosperity and quality of life! --- John Burnett, Chief Executive Officer, Community Education Coalition of Columbus, Indiana This book provides an important road map for health care professionals to develop collaborations effectively in simulation, regardless of discipline or domain. Readers can also use it to evaluate existing collaborations. The book will improve both developing programs and existing programs, so that educators and administrators can focus their attention on teaching and learning through simulation. -- Bonnie Driggers, MS, MPA, RN SimHealth Consultants, CEO and Senior Consultant Oregon Health and Science University, Faculty Emeritus -- Michael Seropian, MD, FRCPC Associate Professor, Oregon Health and Science University Past Chair and Founder,...
