

Employment Law and Works Councils of the Netherlands

By F.B.J. Grapperhaus, Leonard G. Verburg

Kluwer Law International. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Employment Law and Works Councils of the Netherlands, F.B.J. Grapperhaus, Leonard G. Verburg, As markets become increasingly global and the law affecting employees becomes more complex, the need for management to be cognizant of its obligations as an employer has never been more critical. Moreover, employing people is itself a complicated business. Not knowing one's obligations as an employer can be expensive and damaging. This book gives employers a clear understanding of Dutch employment law, with practical and legal information on the hiring and firing of employees, terms and conditions of employment, workplace issues, and the rights of works councils. It offers practical guidance to in-house counsel and lawyers who deal with Dutch labour law and codetermination issues, and also serves to facilitate communication between foreign business persons and their Dutch counsel. Among the issues and topics covered are the following: - collective labour agreements; - changes in employment agreements; - covenants of confidentiality, non-competition, and protection of intellectual property rights; - wages, hours, holidays, sickness; - health and safety compliance; - leave: maternity, adoption, parental, domestic emergencies, short-term care; - pensions and early retirement; - suspension and termination; - employee's...
