Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Making Fences, Walls and Hedges An important use of fences and walls, more appreciated in Europe than here, is support for vines, fruit trees and other crawling plants. In England it is quite necessary to ripen some fruits, such as peaches, against walls. The additional sunshine and the heat radiated from the wall are responsible for the complete ripening of the fruit in a cool, damp climate. As in all other matters of designing, that is designing accessories for the house, the same principles apply for these features. Appropriateness of style with the house, relation Of color and proportion, surface texture and the like; all these are important considerations. They are the connecting links between the purely natural features of the grounds or garden and the conventional and artificial features of the building. They are the shadows of expression between the formality of the house and the formality of the garden Or the informality of the grounds.
