Paperback. Condition: New. 124 pages. Soul Fruit, or the Fruit of the Spirit is developed through the faith of people who seek God in the midst of adversity. Dr. Scott Arnold, and his son Thom, both survived life threatening battles with Non-Hodgkins lymphoma. This is more than a personal account of fighting cancer, it is a reflection that comes from a family, and pastor, who have experienced Gods presence and gained insights, wisdom, understanding and faith in life. Scott not only shares their story of surviving, he also reflects on the loss of his father and brother to cancer. This is more than just another feel good book, this is an honest account that will inspire and guide people dealing with any sort of adversity. Scott develops the outline of the book according to the Fruit of the Spirit: Faith, hope, love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, grace, gentleness and self-control. You wont want to miss the account of Scotts healing encounter with the living Christ who came to him one night while he was praying. You will also want to read of Thoms battle with cancer as a 16 year old. There are many stories here that relate to faith and life. Readers have commented that they cant put it down, and often will read it within a few days and then pass it on to their friends. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
