

America s Lawless Court (Paperback)

By Jay Engleman

Litfire Publishing, LLC, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My name is Jay Engelman and I have an astonishing true story to tell. This tale would seem unbelievable for most people in the United States. I m not going to force you to believe it but as the plot of the story still continues today, I hope I can get your attention. I was born and raised in the slums of East Bronx, New York City during the Great Depression. My father was a taxi driver while my mother stayed at home to take care of the family. We had little money for food, clothing, and other expenses. Yes, it was a hard life, but we survived the ordeals of poverty. When I entered grade school, I have already worked to earn some extra money. I shine shoes, sell magazines, deliver groceries, and fix things that I usually find in the dumpsters and junkyards around the neighborhood I lived in. In high school, I have delivered laundry to celebrities like Tommy Dorsey, Ted Lewis, Les Brown, and Bob Hope. I have also fixed radios brought by different people. During the...
